Peking And The Kowloon Riots

Lennox - Boyd this IVI week gave to the House of Commons a restrained and authentic report on the recent Kowloon rlots, which, among other things, sets at nought the many exaggerated and irresponsible accounts of the disturbances transmitted at the time and

Oddly enough, although the House accepted his explanation of the events, some members in the question and answer debate which followed, introduced subjects such as our housing problem, constitutional reform and immigration restrictions as if to According auggest these were in some part the cause of the riots. It is an unfortunate and wholly erroneous impression to create, even though it was probably done unintentionally,

The Colony does not fear Reports of the after-curfew these subjects being debated in the Commons. On the contrary, their inclusion in the parliamentary business of the day can provide opportunity for informative progress statements by the Government and thus bring the House up to date on such matters. But they definitely bear no relation to the Kowloon riots, the origin of which has now been officially established.

WHAT DO YOU FEAR?

By W. W. BAUER, M.D.

"damage to the life of a human being as can serious organic disease. prolonged fear may be causative factor or at least an unfavourable influence in many a disease has organic causes.

What do you fear? people have many fears and often the fears of the other fellow are completely incomprehensible to the one who does not have them. To him who does, they are exceedingly, distreasingly, frighteningly real

Many people fear death. They succeed in burying this fear or translating it into other forms. Everyone realises that death is inevitable but few are ready to face it today. Fear of death can be overcome in only one way and that is by firm religious convictions which inolude a belief in a hereafter. The person who bolieves that his time on earth is just meaningless interlude between blanks can never entirely escape his fear of death because no one wishes to become as nothing.

OTHER TYPES

Fear of death is modified into many other types of fear, Most people fear the unknown.

Man's future is unknown, and probably he is happier because it is. > Dr Cross got on the scent of the "moneyed smell" when a New Jersey mink rancher complained that his hands became soft from skinning the animals. The rancher's wife referred the problem to a pharmacist, who told Dr Cross.

The Ruigers professor conducted 12 characterisation tests on the grey-white mink suct, and found that the animal's fat is so easily renderable that body heat melts it to a clear yellow oil while it is being held in the hand. Dr Cross found that the oil contains harmone like material which penetrates the skin easily without leaving a greasy film or staining cloth-

Although there are only four or five ounces of fat on the average two-pound mink, 'Dr Cross estimated that about '850 tons of rendered oil a year can be produced from mink fot throughout the country.

Tomorrow's Chances At The Valley

By "RAPIER"

The second day of the Hongkong Jockey Club's First Race Meeting of the current season tomorrow will feature the Kwangtung Handleap and Autumn Plate as the main attraction in a programme of 12 events and keen racing should be the order of the day.

The first saddling bell will be rung at 12 noon and the First Race will be run at 12.30 p.m. The Tiffin interval of one hour is after the Second Race (1.00 p.m.). The Third Race will be run at 2.00 p.m.

Here are my estimates of the

FIRST RACE

The opening event of the day is confined to Class 8 ponies with novice jockeys as pilots, Tumbleweed (W. M. Chan) will undoubtedly be made hot favourite, and on form it should certainly have a good chance of winning here.

Full-of-Spirit (Sonny Shum) is the next best bet, Thanksgiving Day (T. H. Yau) 140 lbs and Diamond Queen (Andrew chan) are not to be ignored. Sweep will depend on the reover this distance. SECOND RACE (Comwall Plate: One Mile).

Unclassified 1956 ponies will Plumbly) the best on account of battle out the finish here. Among its light weight of 138 lbs. It the entries I take a fancy to certainly stands a good chance Belinda (A. Ostroumoff) as it is of winning. in fine condition at the moment. The strongest opposition will fixtures for comorrow: Jezebel (M. Samarcq) is the come from Babsie (K. Kwok) only danger, otherwise I cannot and Raja (S. H. Turpin Logical Contender For Vacant British Light-Heavyweight Title

Randolph Turpin, once a world champion, now written off as just another fighter, may become the new British Light-Heavyweight Champion.

At 28, Turpin is the logical contender for the championship he once held and never lost, and which has been vacated because of Ron Barton's enforced rest in Moorefields Eye Hospital. Turpin may fight Alex Buxton as a substitution for the Barton-Buxton fight at Leicester on November 19.

I do not care for legends. They get between you and the truth. All the way round to Sam Goldwyn's hotel the Goldwyn legend was swarming round my head like a cloud of gnats. The tough talking, the millions....

How do you get a clear look at a man with this sort of thing getting in your eyes !

In the room there was a tall, thin, gangling fellow, with a bald head and a brown face, and eyes like blackcurrants, and a thin sensitive mouth and a squashed-in nose which seemed oddly to enhance the alive, intelligent face.

London, Oct. 25. Developments in Eastern Europe and Wall Street had little effect on the stock market here today, with prices moving irregularly in quiet trading.

Moderate seiling hit industrials with the biggest losses of around a shilling appearing in British-American Tobacco and Imperial Tobacco. Industrials or the whole, however, fell no more than sixpence.

British Government £1/18 to £ 16.

Royal Dutch led oils lower down about a shilling. stocks also ensed.

Profit-taking hit Iron Curtain and Baltie bonds in the foreign bond section. Budapest 4/28 tell 22 and the four per cents fell £1.

Rubber' and 'copper issues were ensier, while gold and 4ca shares were about unchanged .-United Press.

"loday May Write "Finis" To The 10-Month Old Shearing Strike

FROM H, KING WOOD

Sydney, Oct. 19.

The 10-month old shearing strike appears, on the surface at least, to be over. Unions lifted their 'black" ban on wool at midnight on Sunday and work in Brisbane wool stores was as near normal as possible on Monday.

Wool which has been in railway trucks or at Justice J. Reynolds, District country sidings for the last eight months is now on its way to Brisbane wharves. Waterside workers in Brisbane already are loading wool into three ships which will carry away 30,000 bales, worth £3 million.

COUNSEL'S REQUEST

Crown Counsel, Mr W. S. Collier asked the Court to consider if, on entirely similar facts, ten years was the proper sentence for rape on a previous occusion, whether ten years was a proper sentence in the present case.

As to the sentences on the theft charges, he said that the Judge must have decided that five years was what the accused deserved for the thefts and he divided them on the two
